

Subject: History - Understanding the World		Year: Reception
Spring 1: Light and dark/Space
To begin this unit, the children should have already learnt: To know that space is very far away and can only be reached by a rocket.		The learning in this unit will prepare the children to learn these things in the future: Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally The lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements.
Key Enquiry Question What is it like in space?		The Big Idea: To explore the world around me
To achieve ARE, pupils will need to be secure in the following knowledge:
By the end of this unit, children will know: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• That the first person to land on the moon was Neil Armstrong		By the end of this unit, children will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered in books read in class and storytelling
Vocabulary: Neil Armstrong Moon		Resources including books: BBC Bitesize Neil Armstrong (Little people, big dreams) book

Subject: History - Understanding the World		Year: Reception
Spring 2 : Places / Travel
To begin this unit, the children should have already learnt:		The learning in this unit will prepare the children to learn these things in the future:
There are different types of transport.		To learn about changes within living memory To learn about significant historical events, people and places .
Key Enquiry Question		The Big Idea:
How can we get there?		Exploring the natural world around us
To achieve ARE, pupils will need to be secure in the following knowledge:
By the end of this unit, children will know:		By the end of this unit, children will be able to:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Some of the differences between transport now and in the past • That the Wright brothers created the first self-powered flying machine 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understand the past through settings, characters and events encountered through books and story telling • Compare and contrast objects from the past sharing similarities and differences
Vocabulary:		Resources including books:
Aeroplane Transport		Who helped flight take off? (The Wright Brothers BBC Bitesize) The wonder of wings (BBC Bitesize) Amazing Aeroplanes by Tony Mitton	